FOREST AT VERDUNMemorial to Be Erected to 64 Members of Lafayette
Escadrille.By the Associated Press.
VERDUN, July 6.—Verdun will be the final resting place of the American heroes who fell while fighting with the Lafayette Escadrille.

Scattered along the line of death from the sand dunes of Newport to the swamp of Flanders, their bodies—with the approval of their relatives—will be gathered, and beneath a mausoleum worthy of their valor on a shell-torn hill of this shrine of heroism they will await the final call, a symbol of the purest sacrifice ever made by man.

Sixty-four names will adorn the monument, but only sixty-two bodies will be there that future generations may, severe their memory. Indelibly engraved in the hearts of the living. Nothing was found of the mortal remains of Sergt. Victor Chapman and Lieut. Carter Ovington. They met their fate while soaring high above the clouds, and like Guymer, they vanished into space, leaving no trace.

Lafayette Cremated in Plane.
A small urn will suffice to contain all that is left of Maj. Raoul Lufbery, cremated alive in his burning plane. Their bodies may have gone to dust, but for each one of these sixty-four men a plot will be set apart as an individual memorial which either now or at any time can be used as a place of interment. In any case the name of each will appear among the names of his comrades.

This is the program of the Lafayette Escadrille Memorial Association. Born of the initiative of Lieut. E. G. Hamilton, it has undertaken to create and maintain in France a burial garden for the heroes of the Lafayette Flying Corps who enlisted under the flag of France and gave their lives for the cause they defended.

President Millerand, Premier Poincaré and Minister of War Maginot have accepted the patronage of the association, whose president is Marshal Foch and its vice president Ambassador Herrick. The plan for the memorial garden, designed by Alexandre Marcel, chief architect of the French government, has been mailed to every relative of the dead aviators. The garden will occupy a site about two miles from Verdun, the ground having been donated by the French government for this purpose.

Letter Sent to Relatives.

In the letter which accompanies the plan the committee says:

"We feel that these men, who were actuated by the same noble motive, who together underwent the arduous life of training and faced the dangers of the front; who, in many instances, had been close comrades in life, should in death lie together in this memorial garden, which for all time shall be a testimony to their devotion to an ideal which was stronger than their love of life. It is for their relatives themselves to decide whether or not the body should be moved to the place reserved for it. The committee pledges itself that the removal will be done with the utmost care and reverence."

List of Dead.

The following is the complete list, the honor roll of the Lafayette dead, published in full for the first time in the chronological order of their death:
